If you will be a guest at the 2009 AFA-CWA Board of Directors Meeting who has never been to a past B.O.D. Meeting then you are not familiar with the Next Generation Committee. The Next Generation Committee promotes education and involvement of every member. One of our tasks is to make the Union more relevant to our young flight attendants. This task can be very difficult however; we take pride in this challenge. The Next Generation Committee has, in the past, been known to provide the event that is the talk of the Board. Our challenge this year has been set and we feel confident that this event will be the talk of the 2009 B.O.D.

Dear Board Delegate

The Next Generation Committee asks that you post the invitation to our Guest Forum like “No Other” for your members to see. Please post the invitation on your website, in Council offices, and on the AFA Bulletin Board or any other communication tool your council uses.
